

God's Truth about Me! - His Truth makes me Free!

Jesus died my death so that I now live His life.
Jesus dwells in me and lives in me.
Jesus, the Love. Jesus, the Prince of Peace. Jesus, the Conqueror.
I give Him more and more space in me.
I walk in the power of His love.
I walk in the power of His victory.
I walk in His light.
I release Jesus in me!

I am precious in God's eyes. I am of value.
I am His Beloved child.
He paid for my life.
He paid for my freedom.
He gave His blood for me.
I am worthy of the blood of Jesus. That is the value God gives to me.
Therefore, I now walk in joy and gratitude.
I walk in dignity, which He has given me.
He has given me His Name.
I now bear the Name of Jesus.
I belong to Him. He cares for me.

God has made me accepted in His beloved Son.
I am made in His image and likeness.
He rejoices over me with gladness.
He does not condemn me.
He rejoices over me with singing, as a good father does.
God looks at the good in me. So I also look at the good in me.
God speaks well of me, so I speak well of myself.
God doesn't bring me down, so I don't bring myself down anymore either.
I have been ransomed and paid for with the blood of Jesus.

God has destined me to be His child.
He has destined me to be like Jesus.
Destined to walk like His Son Jesus.
In character, speaking and acting.
God has poured out His Spirit into my heart.
I received His power when the Holy Spirit came in me.
He has given me His ability.

God has a wonderful plan for me.
I am also a part of His Body.
I am not overlooked. The Lord does not overlook me.
I am of value. I have a part in God's great plan.
He has prepared good works for me in which I get to walk.
In the unique way God intended me to be.
The Lord is showing me what I can do for Him.

I have been cleansed and sanctified by the blood of Jesus.
God now sees me as He sees Jesus. Beloved and worthy.
I am the righteousness of God through Jesus' work.
I now have "a straight path" to God.
I now stand straight before God without sense of sin or inferiority.
Jesus gave me His righteousness.

I am born of God.
At my rebirth, God took away my sin nature.
He gave me His own nature.
I have a new heart and new desires.
More and more Jesus is expressed through me.

Greater, stronger and more is He Who is in me, than he who is in the world.
I am more than victorious through Jesus who loved me.
He always makes me triumphant.
I overcome the world through my faith and trust in Jesus' finished work for me.

God now dwells in me. He is the Source in my life.
I am learning to draw more and more from that Source.
Jesus in me is getting more and more space in me. In every situation.
He is my peace, He is my joy, He is my patience.
He is my wisdom, He is my health, He is my strength.
He must increase and I must decrease.
In every situation, I step down from my throne and give Jesus space to rule.

I walk according to the Spirit, not to the flesh.
I do not walk according to my senses and feelings.
I don't let my flesh and feelings control and dominate me.

I release the perfect Jesus in me!
